$5.00 REWARD.

The Journal will pay $5.00 reward for evidence sufficient to convict any boy or person found stealing subscribers' papers after delivery of same by carrier.

This morning at 11 o'clock the industrial department of the Pensacola Commercial Association will hold an important meeting. R. M. Wells is chairman. As several matters of interest are to be considered it is requested that all members be present.

Ell Cox has returned to his former home at Arthing, Ill., after spending the winter in Pensacola. This is the seventh winter in succession that Mr. Cox has spent in this city.

Fishing is fine along the Escambia river, to judge from the fine catches made by a party of Pensacola fishermen who went to Perry Pass early yesterday morning. They secured fine strings of fresh water bream and trout and had good sport. The party was composed of L. E. Nobles, L. L. Hughey, Angus Fraser, Max J. Heineberg, Benj. C. Heineberg, N. C. McMillan and C. P. McMillan.

B. Emmett, of Brooklyn, is a guest at the San Carlos for several days. Mr. Emmett has been an annual visitor to Pensacola for the past thirty-five years and has many interesting stories to tell, comparing the city in those days with what it is at the present time. The veteran traveler, who represents a large white lead manufacturer, is well known in Pensacola and has a host of friends who are always delighted to see him.

J. E. Cook, of Montgomery, arrived in the city yesterday and is a guest at the San Carlos.

J. W. Cundall, of London, England, is visiting in the city. He arrived yesterday and is among the guests registered at the San Carlos.

A western Kentucky negro was in jail awaiting trial for stealing a calf. His wife called to see him. On her way out, the jailer, whose name was Grady, halted her.

"Mandy," he inquired, "have you got a lawyer yet for Jim?"

"Now, sah," said the wife. "Ef Jim was guilty, I'd get him a lawyer right away; but he tells me he ain't guilty, and so, of co'se, I ain't a'min' to hire none."

"Mr. Grady," came a voice from the cell above, "you tell dat nigger woman down there to git a lawyer—and git a dam good one, too!"

EXCURSION TO LOCAL TODAY OVER G., F. & A.

INDICATIONS ARE THAT A LARGE CROWD WILL VISIT PROSPEROUS ALABAMA TOWN FROM EVERY STATION ALONG THE ROUTE.

At 9 o'clock this morning one of the largest excursions which has ever been conducted out of Pensacola will be run over the Deep Water Route to Local, Ala.

The excursion will be conducted under the auspices of the traffic department of the road and everyone is assured, not only of a delightful trip through an attractive and rapidly developing country, but a visit to a progressive little city which is attracting a great deal of attention. Indications are at present that a large crowd will go on the excursion today and attend the big barbecue and other festivities which are on the program, which includes music by one of the best bands in West Florida. The special train over the Deep Water Route will leave Pensacola at 9 o'clock this morning, reaching Local at 12:09 p. m. leaving that point on the return trip at 3:43 p. m. and arriving in the city at 7 p. m.

SPECIAL NOTICE!

Owing to the crowded conditions and the fact that the heat became intolerable in the afternoon, we are compelled to move our college to the 3rd floor of the Brent building, where McHugh was located. The building is just across from the San Carlos hotel. Trusting that the patrons of the school will appreciate our interest in their children, and assuring them we are here to give them the best business college in the South, we are

BROUGHT SUIT FOR $3,000; HE RECEIVES $38

JURY IN COURT OF RECORD RENDERED VERDICT IN FAVOR OF J. J. McGUIRE IN SUIT AGAINST L. & N. R. CO.—WILL ALSO GET INTEREST.

The first civil suit tried in the court of record since Judge Kirke Monroe took his seat a little over a week ago was begun and ended yesterday, when a jury rendered a verdict in favor of J. J. McGuire, a Pensacola machinist, who sought to recover $3,000 damages for injuries received while riding in a passenger coach on March 5, 1912, in Walton county. The jury awarded McGuire $38 with interest from date of suit.

McGuire received injuries while riding in an L. & N. coach, which left the rails between Paxton and Florida. R. P. Reese and John P. Stokes were attorneys for McGuire, while Blount & Blount & Carter represented the L. & N.

The jury was composed of Wm. T. Mayo, H. P. Davis, J. T. Richards, W. A. Alford, D. H. Sheppard and Walter Batts.

Defendants Sentenced.
Henry Brown, a negro, selling whiskey without a license, $50 and costs or four months.

Willie James, selling whiskey without a license, $50 and costs or four months. Malissa Jones, his wife, same charge, costs or ten days, sentence to date from May 20. Both defendants are negroes.

Tolliver Page, James Johnson and Walter Evans, all negroes, gambling, $10 and costs or forty-five days.

Lu Belle Deltiva, a negro, gambling, no prosed.

Mattie Benson, a negro, assault and battery, $6 and costs or thirty days.

Court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

CABBAGE SENT FROM BONIFAY TO CINCINNATI

FIRST SHIPMENT TO BE SHIPPED FROM WEST FLORIDA IN MANY YEARS WILL PASS THROUGH THE CITY DURING TODAY.

A solid car load of cabbage raised near Bonifay will pass through the city today enroute to Cincinnati, where they will be placed on the market and no doubt will meet with a ready sale. The shipment is the first to be made from West Florida in many years. Yesterday the agent at Bonifay called for a car and it was sent there to be loaded last night.

REPRESENTATIVE SPARKMAN INTRODUCES MEASURES TO PROVIDE FOR SITES AND STRUCTURES AT DUNNELLON, FORT MYERS, BROOKSVILLE AND ARCADIA.

BY WINFIELD JONES.
Washington, May 29.—Before leaving for Florida today Representative Sparkman introduced a number of bills in the house, as follows:

Providing for purchase of sites and public buildings at Dunnellon, to cost $50,000; at Fort Myers, to cost $100,000; at Brooksville, Hernando county, to cost $100,000; and another at Arcadia, DeSoto county, to cost $100,000.

The bill for the site of the new state capitol building at Tallahassee, to cost $100,000, and to erect a monument to the memory of Major Francis L. Dade, and one hundred of his men, who were killed at the Seminole Indian war under Chief Jupiter, December 28, 1858.

Live Oak Postmaster.
Representative Clark today delivered to Postmaster General Burleson the endorsement of 54 members of the Florida legislature for the appointment of W. Riles Dorman as postmaster at Live Oak. Objection was made several days ago, directly to the post office department against the appointment of Dorman by some of the citizens of Live Oak. Dorman has been here several days trying to smooth out the matter. It is probable the postmaster general will pass on Dorman's application this week and forward it to President Wilson.

Urges Lillard's Claims.
Senator Fletcher today again urged President Wilson to appoint N. J. Lillard, of Pensacola, as public printer. The president at this date had not yet made up his mind regarding the appointment.

WARDVILLE FOLKS HAD A GOOD TIME

Wardville, May 29.—Crops are looking fine after the recent rains in and around Wardville.

Quite a crowd from here went to Pensacola last week, although they were busy with their crops, but decided to take advantage of the cheap rates over the Deep Water Route.

Among them were: Mr. H. Graham and family, Mrs. Oscar Ward, Misses Stella and Wilma Ward and many others. They met many friends while in Pensacola. They all report a very enjoyable time.

"That man is always kicking."
"What about?"
"He doesn't know. He kicks so much he doesn't leave himself time to find out what his real grievances are."

DIRECTORS MET AND PASSED RESOLUTIONS

PENSACOLA COMMERCIAL ASSOCIATION WENT ON RECORD AS FAVORING STATE DIVISION—SECRETARY HENDERSON TO SPEAK AT FLORALA ON JUNE 24, AT MEETING OF INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE.

There was a called meeting of the directors of the Pensacola Commercial Association held yesterday afternoon in their rooms in the Brent building, with President Dobson presiding.

Those present were Messrs. Carroll, Judevine, Wells, Ferris, Warren and Friedman. After the consideration of several important matters it was agreed that the different consuls of the city be extended an invitation to meet with the commerce department on next Thursday afternoon.

The matter of arranging an exhibit at the Interstate Fair was referred to the conventions department with full authority to act.

The following resolution and bill were unanimously endorsed by the directors:

"Joint resolution of the senate and house of representatives of the state of Florida, proposing an amendment of article 1 of the constitution of said state" making possible state division by legislative enactment; and

"A bill to be entitled an act to create the state of West Florida out of the present state of Florida."

The secretary was instructed to forward the endorsement of such bill and resolution to the Escambia county representatives and also the speaker of the house and president of the senate.

The matter of organizing an association or company for the purpose of creating a guarantee fund and to otherwise assist manufacturers in locating and operating, and also equalize freight and power rates, was referred to the department of industry with full power to carry out the plan.

House bill No. 11, entitled "An act requiring county commissioners of each and every county, state of Florida, to plant shade trees each year along county roads of each county," was unanimously endorsed by the directors and the Escambia county representatives requested to use their influence in securing its passage. This bill provides that not less than 200 trees shall be planted each year.

On invitation from the Florida Industrial League, the secretary was authorized to go to Florida on June 24 in connection with their June celebration, and deliver an address.

A resolution was adopted, favoring the creation of commercial organizations for non-profit, from the income tax law. The law in its present shape would tax all commercial organizations with an income of $4,000.00 per year and over.

Old Vets Carry Many Tattered Battle Flags

millita acted as official military escorts to the veterans.

The ranks of the veterans riding in automobiles were swelled from time to time by those who had believed themselves equal to marching in the parade, but who were unable to stand the trying ordeal. Many of these staggered along bravely attempting to maintain step with their more vigorous comrades. When they were forced to fall out, ready hands were extended by the veterans in the automobiles and renewed cheers from the spectators they were hailed aboard to continue the march under less trying circumstances.

The trans-Mississippi department was headed by Lieutenant General K. M. Van Zandt, of Fort Worth, Texas, commander, and his staff. Following him in numerical order, headed by Gen. Felix Robertson, the Arkansas brigades led by General Thomas Green, the Missouri brigades led by their commander, General J. Will Hall, the Oklahoma brigades under command of General D. H. Halley, and the northwest and Pacific brigades, led by General J. F. Richardson, and the Texas brigades, respectively.

Next came Lieutenant General Theodore S. Garnett of Norfolk, commander of the army of northern Virginia. Brigades in numerical order and their commanders in this section were Virginia, commander General Stith Bolling; Maryland, Commander General A. C. Ripley; North Carolina, Commander General Julian S. Carr; South Carolina, Commander General B. H. Teague; West Virginia, Commander Charles S. Peyton.

Lieutenant General George F. Harrison of Opelika, Ala., commander of the army of Tennessee, rode at the head of the state divisions in that section. Alabama brigades, headed by General Harvey E. Jones, Florida brigade under General W. B. Partridge, Georgia brigades with their leader, General H. A. Davenport; Kentucky brigades commanded by General W. H. Haldeman; Louisiana brigades under command of General Thomas S. Shaffer; Mississippi brigades led by General Patrick Henry, and Tennessee brigades under General C. C. Crouch composed the brigades and commanders in the army of Tennessee department.

What was considered one of the most impressive and inspiring spectacles in the parade formed the rear of the parade. One thousand mounted veterans preceded by a cavalry corps of the late General Nathan Bedford Forrest who bore the name of the "Wizard of the Saddle" during the war between the states composed this section. The cavalry corps was mounted on its own horses and is said to be the only organized corps of Forrest cavalymen in the country. General H. A. Taylor commanded.

Tokio, May 29.—The Kelo University baseball team defeated the Leland Stanford University team in the first game of the opening series today by 3 to 2 after playing 12 innings.

The Japanese arranged for a number of Japanese students to carry the Stars and Stripes and to cheer the California players during the game.

A noted lawyer of Tennessee, who labored under the defects of having a high temper and of being deaf, walked into a courtroom presided over by a younger man, of whom the older practitioner had a small opinion.

Presently, in the hearing of a motion, there was a clash between the lawyer and the judge. The judge ordered the lawyer to sit down; and as the lawyer, being deaf, didn't hear him and went on talking the judge fined him ten dollars for contempt.

"The lawyer leaned toward the clerk and cupped his hand behind his ear. "What did he say?" he inquired.

"He fined you ten dollars," explained the clerk.

"For contempt of this court," said the clerk.

The lawyer shot a poisonous look toward the bench and reached a hand into his pocket.

"I'll pay it!" he said. "It's a just debt!"

A West Virginia judge arraigned a shanty boater for stealing a horse, denounced him as a persistent lawbreaker, and then sentenced him to ten years at hard labor in the state prison.

"Have you anything to say?" he asked when he was through.

"No," said the sentenced one—"except that it strikes me you are pretty durned liberal with other people's time!"
